

The Wandering Soul

May 7, 2020

May the grace and peace of our Sweet Savior, Jesus Christ, infuse you with His Love. Amen

My very dear and precious heart dwellers.
I am in a unique position here on the mountain, because we have volunteers who want to help and perhaps learn something more about our spirituality. And I am seeing some of the wonderful fruits of the Lord's labors in each one of them. This is a cause for joy, yet, I am finding that some have been led astray and darkened in their souls by the teachings of Jezebel. This is the Scripture the Lord brought to mind immediately as I sat with Him, seeking wisdom for a current situation.

18" And to the angel of the church in Thyatira write: "The words of the Son of God, who has eyes like a flame of fire, and whose feet are like burnished bronze.

19" I know your works, your love and faith and service and patient endurance, and that your latter works exceed your first. 20 But I have this against you, that you tolerate that woman Jezebel, who calls herself a prophetess and is teaching and seducing my servants to practice sexual immorality and to eat foods sacrificed to idols. 21 I gave her time to repent, but she refuses to repent of her sexual immorality. 22 Behold, I will throw her onto a sickbed, and those who commit adultery with her I will throw into great tribulation, unless they repent of her works, 23 and I will strike her children dead. And all the churches will know that I am he who searches mind and heart, and I will give to each of you according to your works. 24 But to the rest of you in Thyatira, who do not hold this teaching, who have not learned what some call the deep things of Satan, to you I say, I do not lay on you any other burden. 25 Only hold fast to what you have until I come. 26The one who conquers and who keeps my works until the end, to him I will give authority over the nations, 27and he will rule them with a rod of iron, as when earthen pots are broken in pieces, even as I myself have received authority from my Father. 28And I will give him the morning star. 29He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.' By the way that's Revelation Chapter 2:18 to 29.

So, as I went on the internet to find this quote, the Rhema popped up, "I have put My words into your mouth." Well there are some harsh words in that particular scripture and of course the great tribulation really caught my attention thinking that some in this Church will have to go through the great tribulation and in 23 it says I will strike her children dead. It's very interesting about Jezebel's children because when I came out of the New Age one day I was fasting and praying in tongues and the Lord had me renounce the 70 sons of Jezebel and that represented the different practices that I had been involved in, in the New Age. Okay, so moving right along guys the Lord is revealing to me, through some visitors, that they have embraced much of what Jesus has spoken on this channel and put it into practice. As a result, they have many good works, and their focus is on pleasing the Lord by doing His will. But along with that, some feel they have embraced the truth, truth that borders on esoteric and ancient, and are practicing it, so they do not necessarily need further instruction because they have gone deeper than others and they believe the Lord has led them there. They also believe that they hear clearly from the Lord, and do not need correction or to submit their beliefs to anyone. Dear ones, even Paul submitted to Christ's chosen representative on earth, Peter, yet he did not hesitate to correct Peter when he erred. We need the wisdom of the body and especially those God has placed over us to protect us and the faith.

Now here I have to say that I know how these people feel because I was very threatened by Christians, certain Christians, that I felt didn't have the same understanding or knowledge hadn't been in the same place coming from the same place that I came from. In fact there was one very real incident when I first became a Christian I went to a Bible study and it was done on the book "Lord Change Me" which by the way is a wonderful book and is part of the basis of the reason of why we use Rhema's so much. Well in this class was this nice, neat little prissy Christian girl and here I am having just gotten rid of all my beads and leather and feathers and everything else thinking you know with my pyramids and my crystals thinking I'm the cat's meow you know, but I was there to learn and I knew that I had to learn but she brought up something about meditation. Now there is nothing wrong with meditation upon scripture, meditation upon the face of Jesus, meditation on holy things but she was calling into question the practice of meditation in general like in transcendental meditation which I had been doing and I took exception to what she said I was offended. Well that night I had a dream and, in this dream, we were in a dark cave with the Lord Jesus. He walked in with a bowl of porridge and he said, "those who have the words of truth I will feed this porridge" and he gave it to everyone in the cave except for, guess who, me. I was so humbled and so I started to take another look at those different practices that I had been engaging in, in the New Age that I thought well there can't be any harm in that, oh no? Well the Lord showed me that there was and I want to say that there's some places sometimes that the Lord does take us to learn things about evil. For instance, John Paul II carried around the "Communist Manifesto" everywhere he went. He studied it carefully, not because he was a communist but because he had to give an answer in Christ to the deceptions that are contained in it.

So I understand being very protective of the direction the Lord has lead us in the past, I really do, but somewhere along the line if the Lord brings you into a situation in a community where you are to trust someone in that community and they have to earn your trust you can't just give it to them. They do have to earn it, but it is a process and through that process of trusting going a little bit at a time, if there's error in your life that is recognized you want to get rid of it. You don't want to have it there and that is what the elders are for to help you get rid of it. So continuing on as a result of having been embracing the teachings of Jesus on the channel they are full of good works and their focus is totally on His will and yet there is a shadow of confusion there, along with that some feel they have embraced the truth, truth that borders on esoteric and ancient, as I said before, and are practicing it. These things kind of seep into your thinking so they do not necessarily need further instruction because they have gone deeper than others and they believe that the Lord has led them there, so that's a no-go zone for someone who talks to them. They also believe that they hear clearly from the Lord and that there is not a familiar spirit coming in and out there and do not need correction or to submit their beliefs to anyone. God has placed people over us to protect us and sometimes He sends you to a place where there is a person that can be trusted but you have to open up and be transparent, otherwise these things won't get addressed. If you are defensive, I want to address those feelings of defensiveness here. It's not a matter of ego or proving yourself right or smarter or superior, it's a matter of cleaving to the truth and rejecting lies, ancient lies begun in the first century Church and for this difficult undertaking we need the wisdom of the elders and a teachable spirit.

As these visitors share the stories of their lives and conversions, and how "God" has led them, I pick up on shadows...that is a certain darkness. When I even suggest there may be error or something that is not right, the darkness in them recoils and defenses go up. These are areas they are convinced God has led them through, therefore no one can call them into question. As a result, they begin to feel uncomfortable around me, and sometimes, that is their dark company recoiling in the light.

I am not saying I know everything, but having been in the New Age for 14 years, I have a keen sense of smell when it comes to demon rats and their effluent. I want to help these souls, but I can't, the demon within them recoils and they become defensive. But having rejected Christianity for Agnostic theories in my early years, I began at the very bottom of the spiritual ladder seeking the truth and this journey took me through Eastern Religions, occultic practices, numerology, astrology, the iChing, transcendental meditation, scientology, Native American spiritism, Tarot card reader, and even studying to become a trans medium for 14 years before He delivered me one night in a spectacular show of power that I couldn't question. It was almighty God and there was nothing to compare to that. In spite of that I still bucked some of the Christian teachings. I was very prideful and self-assured that I had deeper knowledge than these born-again Christians, but my hunger for the truth, thanks be to God, overshadowed that. Now at the tender age of 74, the Lord has helped me to recognize error in the guise of "greater wisdom," a certain sense of privilege that souls who are being led astray, always seem to have. A sense of superiority, a sense of having gone deeper, a sense of the esoteric. That odor is a sure give away that they have been seduced into believing they are wiser than others, by very subtle demons who play on their need to be an authority, on their vanity and on their pride.

Jesus began, "You see, my people, many of you have heard My voice and dwelt in My presence, but there are shadows in your souls, shadows of pride, self-righteousness, obstinacy. Some of you are influenced by the need to be knowledgeable, and so you are slowly seduced away from the truth by the "deep things of Satan." It satisfies a certain need to know more than others, to be better than others, to be more spiritual, to be distinguished by your well-rounded knowledge, that goes beyond the "ordinary" Christian. Yes, you feel very good about yourself because you have gone deeper than the others.

You have isolated yourselves from the wisdom of the elders and see yourselves as authorities with hidden knowledge having been given you. May I say that indeed, you do have knowledge, but it is not always the knowledge that leads to righteousness, peace and joy. How I long to reach in and pull this filth from your hearts, but you are so self-secure and sure of yourselves that you will not let anyone correct you. With these attitudes you are being led astray and cannot be corrected.

This Pride and self-righteousness are so strong that it is destroying even your marriages and families. You are not sufficiently grounded in sound doctrine to recognize your plight, and whenever you get close to the truth, or someone I sent into your life to reveal the truth, the demons quickly find ways to Wisk you away from the "danger" a "vague uncomfortable feeling"...and the very real threat that such vessels pose to the dark one's secure control in your life and at this point He brought up:

2 Timothy 4. For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables.

2 Timothy 1:13

Hold on to the pattern of sound teaching you have heard from me, with the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus.

1I charge you [a]therefore before God and the Lord Jesus Christ, who will judge the living and the dead [b]at His appearing and His kingdom: and again in this particular version, 3For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine, but according to their own desires, because they have itching ears, they will heap up for themselves teachers; 4and they will turn their ears away from the truth, and be turned aside to fables. 5But you be watchful in all things.

So, it's throughout the scriptures, there's was another verse here God's Word translation which I like. A time will come when people will not listen to accurate teachings. Instead they will follow their own desires and will surround themselves with teachers who tell them what they want to hear.

Another mark of this presence of the Jezebel spirit is that the soul's life is in confusion, they are still being led around the mountain by the Lord. Not truly knowing their mission in life, they have not yet entered their promised land. There is good reason for that, Jesus has not yet brought them into their ministry He has for them because they would replicate error. I was so full of error; it took Him 50 years before He could trust me in ministry and I still make mistakes and need correction even on a daily basis.

Not only is there confusion and difficulty in discerning the direction one must go, there are serious problems in their relationships and marriages because of Pride and spiritual blindness because they don't recognize the areas and attitudes in themselves that are being controlled by the enemy. They feel great frustration and are easily affronted reacting in anger or self-pity. So, they withdraw even deeper into themselves and find fault with others, when much of the blame lies with them.

Oh, my dear ones, I hate this job of having to lance boils, and this is me speaking now, but I am telling you, the Lord Jesus has put these words into my mouth in the hopes that something, somewhere, deep down within these souls will rise up and say ENOUGH!!! I want to be purified and be on the right track. I want the mission God has for me. I'm tired of my life of wandering and being manipulated by lying spirits and Jesus lookalikes. Will the real Jesus please stand up!!!!???? and see that's the thing, the enemy mixes the truth with lies and so the Lord may be speaking with you in one situation. He may take a pause and the enemy may come in and say something else totally to your liking and you swallow it hook, line and sinker. I'm telling you this because I've been through it and I can still go through it.

How can I talk to you this way??? It is an act of mercy, because I was once right where you are, with all kinds of conflicting ideas in my head, pride was exposed because I would react in resentment when someone would come close to my errors. The demons who planted those errors have pitchforks and defend their territory, they will not yield to the discernment of the elders and they will make you feel very uncomfortable, rather they will begin to put slanderous thoughts in your mind, finding fault with them, belittling them and insinuating that they are just not as deep as you are. Then you will fall into judging a minister of the altar, an intimate and trustworthy servant of the Lord sent to help you, who is indeed anointed to lead you out of the darkness into the light. This in turn will result in another open door for the demons so they may lead you even further astray in your self-righteousness and presumption and that's what I have experienced, the minute I start finding fault with a minister of the altar, I open a door to strife and the enemy comes marching in and causes all kinds of problems. Ezekiel and I have really, really recognized this over the years. You know how husbands and wives talk.

My dear ones, do not be deceived by these arch enemies. Please, please, recognized that you have a lying Jesus alongside the real Jesus. When we have much pride and self-assurance because we DO hear the Lord's voice and we DO see Him in visions, we are protective of that relationship and rightly so, however, because of the hidden judgments of our hearts as we look down at others who don't have this privilege...which are every bit as toxic as the ones we speak out, because of this He will allow a Jesus look alike to deceive you, and that demon will play you like a violin...he will satisfy your fancies about yourself and how deep you are. He will feed you much leaven to puff you up above those faithful ministers who tried to approach your error.

And thus, you will walk away from the ones who were there to help you, being even more convinced of your righteousness and superior knowledge of the faith. Can you be honest with yourself here? Can you search your heart and see if these attitudes are in you? You have nothing to lose, only the darkness that has kept your life in chaos for so many years, preventing you from finally finding your destiny.

Perhaps the most difficult part of all of this is that the soul that has heard from God and continues to hear from him, also hears from the enemy. So many things will be accurate and other things will not pan out. But over a period of time, the fruit will prove what was of God and what was not. When the soul finally latches on to the authentic God given destiny, they will begin to blossom, bring forth fruit and stabilize. This is the fruit I look for to confirm that their direction was truly ordained and led by God. Another blind alley, another disaster, another rejection and more wandering are sure signs that the enemy is still at the helm, for he will never lead a soul into their true destiny.

Precious ones, take this from one who has wandered in that wilderness and had more rebellion, pride and self-satisfaction and so-called wisdom than most, I have been there, I have lived there, and my heart aches for those who are captives to this so-called higher knowledge and deception. Lord Jesus please deliver us from every deception in our lives, please give us a teachable spirit and lead us to those elders, those souls that we can trust. That we can trust with our knowledge of you and knowing you, who have true discernment to lead us out of any error in our lives. We ask this in Jesus name.

Faith Family not Institution and RAPTURE

May 9, 2020

May the peace and grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you dear family.

I'm under scrutiny with those who do not understand the simplicity of the early church and I wanted to share with you what the Lord had to say. I asked Him to help me and come to terms with that. Lord I know that we are looked down upon as not being Kosher with the institutional churches, please help us to grasp Your viewpoint on this and the Lord began,

It is not always those who are righteous in the eyes of men that I call to holy orders, it is the pure of heart that have no other motive than seeking, loving and serving Me. This will not be recognized by the worldly minded.-- -- They are looking for the validations from men.-- -- They are looking for correctness and status.

Status in Heaven is determined by purity of heart.-- -- Put a man or woman through 6 years of seminary and whatever purity of heart they began with will be buried underneath a ton of posturing to make it through to ordination.-- -- -- I don't work that way.-- -- I am looking for the pure of heart, the innocent, the devout who seek Me in spirit and in truth. One who seeks to please men can hardly measure up to that.-- -- It is the one who seeks only Me, that I approve.-- -- These souls are culled out of seminaries because they pose a threat to the liberal agenda.-- -- They are just too devoted to My word to function in the 'modern' world.

Do not look at a man's stature to determine their suitability to the calling.-
- -- Look only upon the heart and how it has dominated the soul living only for me and not at all for men or status.-- -- Clare, you will be hated by some and called a heretic, but then, so was I.-- -- You have nothing to lose in My eyes, and everything to gain by refusing to bow to the accolades of men.-- -

I understand Lord but please make me stronger.-- --

I will and I am.-- -- Other things are on my heart right now, like the deteriorating condition of your country which is hosting many battles on different fronts.-- -- Because the enemy has laid deep foundations and ground work for this move of global control, the younger generation is posing a threat to what I want to do, they are finishing up the fullness of teachings preparing them for a global government.-- -- But I will touch them through revival and they shall be set free, understand My dear one, things are conflicting on all fronts.-- -- Firefights beneath the earth and fights for dominance on the earth are at this time ferocious.-- -- There are many casualties, but My cause is coming through even as through a life and death struggle.-- --

And speaking of underground fire fights, this is me now, I wanted to share with you the latest information I had so far 750,000 trafficked children have been rescued from underground facilities.-- -- President Trump has mandated our armies to learn how to fight underground. They are encountering demon aliens who have only to lift a finger and a very powerful electrical charge comes forth from them and kills the soldiers.
Dear ones, please pray for these troops working underground that they will be kept safe and destroy the forces they are up against.-- -- Please pray Psalm 91 over them and they are rescuing these children and, as some of you know, demon aliens subsist on human flesh and blood.

Jesus continued, "The lynch pins are being removed" (Here He is referring to the global leaders that have corrupted our country.)

Literally, a linchpin is the pin that goes through the axle of a wheel to keep it in place, but linchpin can be used to mean an important part of anything, the thing that holds it all together. If someone or something is indispensable, they're a linchpin. Take away the linchpin and everything falls apart, but here the Lord is saying that they have trainees in place to take the place of the linchpins.

The linchpins are being removed, Jesus continued, yet there are trained replacements ready to move into those vacancies.-- -- My people your prayers are determining the course of this nation. When you drop to your knees and call out in agony over the evil that goes so deep in your nation, when you do that, My Father's hand moves to grant you more time, more grace, more mercy.-- -- Continue with this prayer each time you see--or become aware through My Holy Spirit, of the raging battle beneath the ground and cry out, Oh Father, more time, more grace, more mercy.-- -- He listens to your petitions and does release graces.

I am raising up children of My heart to minister at the altar.-- -- Their heart and commitment to Me is what qualifies them.

Lord, you keep giving us continual Rapture readings?

I have told you My time frame.-- --However keep in mind that I am not privy to the day or hour, only My Father holds that information so close to His Heart.-- -- He has given Me some information, but the very day and hour remain hidden from Me, My Bride.-- -- Are you excited?

Yes I'm excited but you know me I want to finish my work.

Just keep working Clare and keep watch, no man knows the hour, but if you obey Me and keep watch you will be ready.--My darling Clare, I long to have you here with Me in Heaven, and you long to finish your appointed course, but I want you to remember, everything the Father does is done to perfection, and that includes timing.-- You are so unaware of the turmoil in the world in this moment.-- The scales continue to tip, one moment it is darkness punishable by judgment, the next moment it is mercy.-- -- How are you to know these things?-- --Stay close to Me, intimately connected to My Heart and you will be ready.

Be ready and willing at any given moment to leave this place and be with Me.-- -- If you hold that in your heart there will be no hesitation.--You cannot be here past the appointed time.-- -- It is not yours to stay for the tribulation, rather it is yours to be with Me. However you are laying the groundwork for those who will come after you, and there shall be a great army of souls who extol and live My Mercy every day.--They will have the heart necessary for My Church to survive.-- --The teachings I have entrusted to you will have a great bearing on their success.-- --

I am oh so tired of institutions, politics, riches and all the corruption that goes with it.-- --I am so ready to establish My Church as a family, with a mother and father, in simplicity, with souls that long to dwell in My heart and have no other motive than to Live for Me. Men and their agendas get in the way of this, that is why their kingdom is falling.-- --But My church will never fall, the remnant are those who love me with all their hearts and have learned to separate the precious from the vile.

I rejoice in the day we can all be together once again, even as it was in Heaven, be united in one pure cause serving the Father and raising up souls into the Holy life I intended for them.-- -- I long with all My Heart to see these pure souls rise up as one great army and restore the purity and holiness of My Kingdom on Earth.-- --I am sending you souls with the same vision, embrace them with your motherly love and lead them into the freedom of a true relationship with Me devoid of all human considerations, and these will be My living stones upon which I will rebuild My Church, from My Heart as it's foundation.

I bless you now with the strength and courage to follow your appointed course while waiting for My coming.

Be Prepared. Fire Will Fall From Heaven

May 13, 2020

Dear Family, we are in a very serious season of judgment that is coming to earth. The Lord has confirmed a solid source through one of our core members and he has a very accurate history of warning of different catastrophes on the earth, that actually do come to pass. His name is, Mike from Around the World who has messages on Sound Cloud, under the name of Council1arch.-- -- Basically, he has been warning us of a doomsday type cloud of debris, for the past 8 years, and that it is to intersect with the earth around May 12, 2020. It is 3 to 4 Million miles wide, and it is associated with the approaching dark star Nibiru and its planets.-- --Our solar system is just beginning to pass through this now, this very day.-- --No one really knows how extensive the damage to earth will be, but according to our core group visions, they saw fire falling from Heaven setting the earth on fire in many nations.-- --At the end of this message I'll share with you a prophetic word given by Mother Elisha, formerly Nana.

As an example, and to give you an idea of what a meteorite can do, on September 15, 2007, near the village of Caracas in Peru, at 12,500 ft and close to the Bolivian border and Lake Titicaca.-- -- The impact of a 10' meteor created a crater larger than (15 ft) deep, (43 ft) wide, with visibly scorched earth around the impact site, in the clay and scorched earth around its location.-- A local official, said that "boiling water started coming up out of the crater, and particles of rock and cinders were found nearby", as "fetid, noxious" gases spewed from the crater. Really stinky stuff, sulfur.

After the impact, villagers who had approached the site grew sick from a then-unexplained illness, with a wide array of symptoms. The impact--a local official said, caused "boiling water to come out of the crater, and particles of rock and cinders were found nearby", as "noxious" gases spewed from the crater.-- -- The fireball had been observed by the locals as strongly luminous with a smoky tail, and seen from just 3,300 ft above ground. The object moved in a direction Northeast and the small seismic shock of the impact shattered the windows of the local health center a half a mile away. A smoke column was formed at that site that lasted several minutes, and gas was seen bubbling up in the water in the crater.

Soon after the impact, more than 600 villagers visited the site and began falling ill from unexplained symptoms, dermal injuries, nausea, headaches, diarrhea and vomiting.-- -- On September 20th, Peruvian scientists confirmed that there had been a meteorite strike. It's interesting because one of our members here of the community had been hearing, one week it was "fire falling from the sky" every day and the next week it was "the blood of the martyrs". Also, a scripture that was associated with this vision "fire in the sky" was in Baruch 6:62 fire, sent from on high to burn up the mountains and the forests, carries out its command. But these false gods are not their equal, whether in appearance or in power.

I wanted to mention to you also that Mike from Around the World you can find him at <https://soundcloud.com/council1arch>.

Lord, what am I to tell the heartdwellers about this?

Jesus began, tell them not to be afraid of the fire that falls from Heaven, but the fire that burns in Hell for eternity.-- --I am standing by waiting to rescue souls from Hell if they will call out to Me.-- -- People of the earth, you have been duped and deceived by your rulers, but those who are evil are in high places.-- --

You've been led astray, to believe that what they are doing is good when it is pure evil.--You young ones who have been trained in the ways of the world, you have much to learn to uncover the truth of the agenda behind the teachings that have prepared you to hate what is good and right.

I am the one who created this beautiful planet, and I am the one who has preserved it. Those who falsely accuse Me are the ones who are setting this planet up for its demise.-- --Satan's entire agenda is to destroy you in the most painful way possible and to destroy this planet as well.-- -- He hates you and everything this beautiful earth contains and his one and only agenda is suffering, death and destruction.

I am telling you this because you do not know the extent of deception and destruction plotted against you.--This nation is now at an impasse, it has reached the point of no return.--You are entering into a time of unparalleled suffering and destruction and I am calling you all to pray as never before because your very lives do indeed depend upon it.

What is coming is not to be believed, but for those who have done their homework and are prepared I will be with you to assist others.

Lord, please tell us what to expect.

Jesus replied, death and destruction.

Prayer, prayer and more prayers...work at this time is not the focus, prayer is.-- --Press into prayer.-- --Lives depend upon your faithful prayers and vigilance.-- -- Many lives, thousands of lives, not just their bodies but where it is determined they shall go after they die.-- -- As I told you in the beginning do not be concerned about the fires on the earth, but those within the earth, in hell and be concerned with your salvation.

The reign of God comes in a way no one would expect.-- -- With thunder, and lightening and signs in the sky, do I come. Yet not all are ready for My coming and this has been the issue with My Father and I.--We want so many more to be saved, Clare.--So many more.--And while My Bride waits anxiously for My coming, assuming even that she is ready, I still must look upon selfish lives that live for themselves and not for My kingdom come and My will to be done on earth.

All the while this carnival is going on, souls are dying for lack of food, clothing, shelter, love, a knowledge of how dear they are to Me.-- -- Clare there are still many, many more to be saved before We remove My Bride from the earth.-- --You are wise to come to Me seeking this wisdom, because while everyone is getting busy for the rapture, I am busy looking for laborers in the field.-- -- And I find pitifully few.

What does this mean beloved?--It means I must wait, My Bride is still preoccupied with herself, not with those who are suffering want and above all suffering in ignorance of My tender love for them.--The Gospel must be preached throughout the WHOLE world.--And even though it seems obvious that I could come for My Bride at any moment, I am still waiting for her to perform...that is, in obedience, work in the fields that are ripening for the harvest.

That is why the Rapture will not come about now.--This has been settled in Heaven.--It is not time yet. But I must drop hints and stir into flame the eventuality of My soon coming, in hopes that My Precious Bride will take stock of her life and discover she is indeed lacking in resemblance to Me.---
- Yes, this is a finer point, My Bride must resemble Me.--She must be persecuted, rejected and downgraded in the eyes of the world.-- --This can only happen when she is busy about MY business, bringing in the harvest.

Lord, I have been such a failure at fasting lately...it seems like I truly love myself more than the work You've given me but I get so weak.--

Jesus continued, I want you to understand once and for all, it is not given to every soul to fast severely.--Get your eyes off fasting and onto loving and serving.--You see the enemy succeeds in side tracking and discouraging you by drawing attention to your weaknesses. This holds true for you and EVERY heart dweller.--This is Satan's favorite way to disconnect a Christian from Me...accusation, guilt and shame.-- -- Some have made an idol out of fasting.--There is no doubt that it is powerful and important in your lives, but do not make it into an idol...that unless you chose a strict, arbitrary fast, you are not fit to hear from Me. That is a lie. If I have chosen you to hear from Me, you will hear but I do honor self-denial but don't make it a god.-- --

Excesses of food and entertainment dull the senses and create a certain deafness. So, to be sharp, alert and attentive to My call, I ask you to moderate these things in your lives.-- -- Clare, it would shock you if you could see how many of those who fast what's in their mind. So many do it from an impure motive.-- -- They want to be holy like Saint so and so, so they figure they can fast like so and so did and they will be holy.-- -- No, it doesn't work that way, it is love, obedience and humility that prepare the heart...not just outward observances.

Now, if I ask a soul to abstain, then it is for a very good reason and their obedience will please Me. The spiritual life is loaded with reefs of presumption that appear holy but are traps.-- -- That is why I teach...the greatest of these is love.--Someone who looks fit and very accomplished, fasting, praying, shedding tears for others, giving words of knowledge, yet is not operating from brotherly love, this person is missing what is most important.

Enough said, but I wanted to clarify to you, it has been settled in Heaven, there is still more time. Yet many catastrophes will occur on Earth to bring My Bride up and into the forefront of the harvest. These are wake up calls, not the final trump.--Please do not doubt Me in this.

So, I say to you, "Steady as she goes."---- Get to work on your apostolate, to contribute to the harvest, be a worker in My fields and bring in the souls that are languishing and ignorant of My tremendous love for them.

Do not allow yourself to be cowed by the enemy, who is forever accusing you and holding up to your standards I didn't choose.-- -- -- No, follow Me alone, out of obedience and do not make idols for yourselves, out of spiritual practices.-- -- Listen for My instructions on your fasting and follow that, because I alone know what you can handle and what is not good for you.-- Do this and I will be well pleased with you.

Also be on the lookout for tricks to side track you into doing other things because they are 'holier' in your eyes. No, this is vain glory.-- -- Humility and obedience will defeat these traps you have so easily fallen into in the past.-- -- I bless you now My Sweet Spouses, and in your hearing ears, I send garlands of grace and peace born of My righteousness, to rest upon your shoulders and increase your confidence in our very special relationship....and that was the end of His message.

Now Mother Elisha opened the scriptures and her fingers fell on verse 62 of the Book of Baruch wouldn't you know it was concerning fire falling from the skies on the forest

Baruch 6:62 "and fire, sent from on high to burn up the mountains and the forest, carries out its command. But these false gods are not their equal, whether in appearance or in power." Now here He's referring to the idolatry that was going on and the reason why this fire from on high was sent to burn up the mountains of the forest.

In Sirach, which is in the Catholic Bible 17:

But to the penitent he provides a way back and encourages those who are losing hope!

Turn back to the Lord and give up your sins. Pray before him and make your offenses few. Turn again to the Most high and away from iniquity, and hate intensely what he loathes. Who in sheol can glorify the Most High in place of the living who offer their praise? The dead can no more give praise than those who have never lived; they who are alive and well glorify the Lord. How great is the mercy of the Lord, and his forgiveness for those who return to him! And this is all about repentance in our nation. It's no mystery that New York was hit very hard with the virus, because of all the killing of babies that they are doing. Cutting them up coming out of their mother's womb, it's horrendous. It's just horrendous and I think we can expect judgment to fall on that area of our country. Heavier than in other places because of this very thing.

Lord I can't help but think there are more calamities coming and you want me to warn more people, that's Mother Elisha speaking.

Jesus replied, yes beloved the things that are coming are so devastating dear one many will not be able to comprehend why or what is going on, it will be one after the other dear one.-- -- How I am truly calling my sleeping ones to wake up from their slumber as this pandemic and plague dies off so another will rise right on its heels. Forest fires are coming this summer all over your nation none like ever before destroying crops, fields, homes, lively hood it's going to be an immense challenge for your nation and forest fire workers beloved many of my animals will also be caught in the fire in the thick of it and perish.

Many will then begin to cry out where is God in all of this? and I respond to you my people that I am here I have always been here waiting for you to respond. Now that the earth is passing away and there is nothing good in it, will you now begin to see that your life is but a vapor and give it to me, to my will now you begin to see that your fortresses, your hopes, your wealth and even your health cannot save you but only I can.

Call out to me my people I am waiting to hear my beloved ones cry out to me in great humility and contrition--turning from there sinful ways that I may heal their--land. But many will say how have I sinned I'm a godly person, I go to church I pay tithe, oh my beloved ones working out your salvation is much more than that. It is the totally desire to live free from sin. I have called you to be holy as I am holy, it is a renunciation of comprises, small foxes that continue to spoil the vine, it is a deep examination of your conscious as--to how you have lived your lives. Are you truly following Me, are you loving your neighbor as yourself, are you helping the sick, the poor, the hungry, not just with a donation, hear and there, but truly in your heart living for others, for my kingdom or are you living for yourselves and your family. Please wake up my dear ones, rise from your slumber and sleep no more, I am doing a great shaking before the great awakening comes upon the whole world. Indeed, the harvest is plenty but the labors are few. Now to my faithful ones there are those all around seeking me in their hearts, seeking answers to their questions and you have the answers. This is a great time to share my love, my hope and faith with all those around you. So please don't shy away from this, from the opportunities I bring before you, because the opportunities are going to be countless. So please my beloved brides stand with--me, I know many of you are weary but stand with me. A time of great harvest is coming and it is even here now.

Mother Elisha answered, Oh Lord help us, help me because I am truly one of your very weary ones. Give us all the strength to stand and believe with great hope not only for ourselves but for those around us.

Jesus replied to her, my beloved one, yes indeed I am releasing graces even now for those to rise in great strength and faith in this hour and I hear the worries of your heart and the anxieties beloved everything I promised you will come to pass even in the midst of chaos. Remember I do make beauty from ashes and make a beautiful masterpiece out of ruins. So, my faithfulness will be a testimony to all who witness what I do even in the midst of this trial. And that was the end of her message from the Lord.

We have another young man, the young man that I invited him here. He dropped everything he was doing, left and came out here and he is doing wonderfully and the Lord is starting to speak through him as well and perhaps in the next message I'll have the time to share that with you.

But in the meantime, please pray and understand that the scriptures say in Revelation fire will fall from the sky and this is going to start happening now. It is already begun in some places and you're not likely to hear very much about it in the media. But it's going to start now and it's going to get more and more intense, so please be on the lookout, be praying, be repenting, reforming your life. Today is the Lord's supper, the readings were all about John the Baptist, prepare the way of the Lord, repent, prepare the way of the Lord. So, God bless you heart dwellers, thank you so much for continuing to take care of us and the refuge, there are some beautiful things going on here and I hope to get to share them with you. For now, may the Lord shine His sweet face upon you and wrap you in His arms and hold you close and give you His peace and yet prepare your heart for the things that are to come that you might rise up and work in the fields where the hungry, the thirsty, the lame and the forsaken are crying out.

Hello Brothers and Sisters, YouTube Family hope you guys are being blessed

I had a series of dream and two of them the Lord was speaking to me about the coronavirus. I woke up with this in my spirit " rely on his mercy and goodness for salvation not the vaccines". However, I was so tired while he was speaking I went back to sleep for about 2 more hours. When I woke up I came before him immediately saying

Lord sorry I'm coming to you so late please forgive me is there anything you want to say Jesus,

My beloved one I'm calling you to warn my people yet again. I know how tired you are but, I am training you in a diligent work ethic that relies solely on my grace in your weariness. You will come to understand much later and thank me because there will be many long nights as you head out in your mission. Where your body will be spent but, I will be there to remind and pour out my graces on you that you can continue to preserve and get much done, Endurance, beloved one endurance. Now back to my people please heed this warning. As the lockdown will be rolled back in your nation so will many vaccines and cures be sent out for testing. They will try to do this quickly out of fear of having this virus spread and out of fear many will run to receive the vaccine. No, it's not the mark as some have said, that time has not yet come but, this vaccine will affect your immune system gravely rather than building it up. It breaks it down to make you more acceptable to the plagues that they will again release on your nation. This has nothing to do with your government and president in office but the ones that came before him. My people you must remember they had this plan long ago they have been waiting for this time, the right time to bring their plans about for the one world order. The deep state and many servants of Satan are so frustrated because I continue to mitigate every attack, every plan, and assault they inflict on the nations and the world to expedite their time of rain but, they forget that I AM God and I AM is in control. I am even in control of them, I allow the times and seasons of these things and they work under my heavenly jurisdiction as to what I allow to wake my people up and bring many lost back to their senses. Why do the nations rage and the kings of the earth come to fight a losing battle? Indeed, I will be victorious at the end. However, my people this does not negate the fact that I am indeed coming and these are signs foretold to prepare you. That you may believe when you see these things and not fear. This is not a time to go back to business as usual, this is not a time to go back to your old ways of thinking, this is not a time to go back to the rat wheel of this world. No, my beloved one, this is not a time to go back to Egypt I am calling you all out of this bondage of the world and into my heart. I am calling you to see what is most important in your life, your salvation and that of your families. Have you realized how important your children are? How much they need your guidance and wisdom? How quickly they are growing and the world can teach them or I can through you. Have you realized the moments you have missed with them being at work, focused on work, focused on living a comfortable life and allowing the school systems to do your job? Have you noticed these things dear ones? This Lockdown I allowed goes much more deeper than my people have seen or come to realize. This is indeed a time of deep reflection for you will be held accountable for these little souls. Have you taught them my ways, or have you allowed them to sit before the tv, and books of this world and learn from them? Have you realized how precious your spouse is and how much they are in need of your love, comfort and encouragement and guidance? Have you realized how distant you two were becoming? How thoughts of boredom and discontentment had crept in which leads to coveting and eventually an affair. Have you realized that they are another gift from me to you? So husbands love your wives as I have loved the church laying down my life for her and wives love your husbands submit to them as you submit to Me. I honor these actions in a marriage very much and will bless it even if one walks in these practices and virtues. So, my precious ones I am calling for a deep examination of your soul and your family. Don't go back to how things used to be because there were headed to a destructive road but, turn your heart back to me, turn your family's heart back to me as you lead by example. No longer allowing the world in your home by what you watch, listen too, read, and in your conversations but, let it be centered on me and your love for each other. Do not, Do not take the vaccines my beloved ones that are meant and have always been used to break down the families of this world. As it injects you with things beyond your knowledge and eventually killing you in the process. Trust in my mercy and goodness alone to be your salvation and my right your deliverance when plagues come near your dwelling. Be a people who know their God, Trust their God and Confident in their God.

Dream, Donald Trump in a Casket

May 15, 2020

May the heart of the Father be in you and you in His Holy Heart, to bring forth prayers of passion for this world.

Dear Family, I want to tell you a story, a true story.-- -- Some years back, a pastor, with wife and children, invited different prophets to his church for the enrichment of his flock.-- -- Over a period of time many had come, and when praying with that pastor and greeting him, they would become very solemn and a pained look would cross their faces.-- --

Each time that happened with prophet after prophet, he was told, "I feel I must tell you, your daughter is in great danger, the Lord is telling me, she going to be kidnapped."-- -- With each prophetic word that was given, the pastor and his wife prayed over her, taking extra precautions to protect her.- - -- Still, for several months, when a prophet would come to the church, they would get teary eyed and tell the pastor and his wife..." The Lord is telling me that your daughter is going to be kidnapped."-- -- Each time the pastor and his wife threw themselves on the mercy of God and continued to pray and exercise precautions.-- -- Finally, the time of danger passed and their daughter grew up into a beautiful woman of God.-- -- You see the Lord warns us of impending tragedy, and when He does, it is up to us to plead for His Mercy.

Well, I am bringing this to you Heart dwellers, because my heart is heavy and broken by several dreams that President Donald Trump, was lying in a casket in the oval office.-- -- -- My question to you and even to the depths of my own soul is, "Are we going to allow this to happen?"-- -- Oh, dear

God can we stop this terrible thing from happening, by our prayers?-- -- -- Praying the Divine Mercy chaplet and adding at the end of each decade, three times, "Father, please grant us more time, more grace, more Mercy."--
-- Can we stop this with rivers of tears?-- -- Oh, my precious ones, you who dwell in Jesus Heart and He in your heart, can you petition Him with every ounce of supplication, to spare our president and allow our country to be cleansed of this dark world force.

Jesus began, "My people, My people, tragedy looms at the White House, this is the hour of darkness that is pressing upon America, what are you going to do about it?-- -- Will you allow this to happen?-- -- Will you stand by and let darkness take your country over?-- -- What are you going to do??
-- -- This decree has gone forth because of the sinfulness of My people and their lack of repentance from empty works.-- -- -- I am calling upon you all, right now in this hour to repent from your worldly ways and truly turn over a new lease on life.-- -- One filled with righteousness and not empty vain pursuits.-- -- Tragedy stands at the door, will you My people repent for this fascination with wealth and worldly goods?-- -- Will you seek My righteousness, My kingdom come, My will be done?-- -- If My Father sees a massive move of repentance from the worship of wealth and prosperity, to a country deeply committed to righteousness and justice, perhaps He will forestall this judgment.

Will you step out of yourselves and care for the poor and those who are floundering in life.-- -- Will you feed the hungry, clothe the poor and look after humanity, as a tender mother and father?-- -- -- I have given this country great wealth, but not for your vain pursuits, rather to comfort the poor and bring equality of wealth to those who are struggling.-- -- I have seen massive change in this country, much to your President's courage in putting his life and the-- -- lives of his families in great danger, by making the moves necessary to conquer darkness.

But this task is not something that can be assessed on the surface.-- -- The deeper he goes the greater the rot and corruption.-- -- The educational system has prepared young Americans to side with ungodly agendas in the name of freedom.-- -- He has done many things well, and your prayers have kept him alive to keep going.

My Father has sent many, many events to turn the hearts of this people away from the world and onto family values and Godliness.-- -- But with the focus on money and greatness, people have missed the most important issues and rushed head long into worshipping the dollar.-- -- Even with the Covid restraints, the true focus is still missing as the byword continues to be make America great again.-- -- I say to you, make America Holy again and prosperity will follow, in the measure it is needed but not so that you can again be corrupted by money and possessions, which is what every civilization destroyed itself with.

The world is now on the precipice of disaster, and the death of your president will leave America in national upheaval and civil war. Will you allow this to happen?-- -- I am calling you to travailing prayer.-- -- I am calling you to cover your heads with sack cloth and ashes and cry out for mercy, more time, more grace, more mercy.--Life is very tenuous in these times with natural calamities on your doorstep, and an enemy that is convinced it must conquer the world by reducing the population radically, with genocide after genocide, until only the chosen elite are left.

My people, I am crying out to you for prayer and supplication, like you never have cried out before, the vision of Donald Trump in a casket, should be enough to fuel your tears and prayers begging for Mercy.-- -- Prayer changes things, but only united passionate prayer can prevent the death of your president. Travail for him and for your future and perhaps My Father will extend his term of office.

Ezekiel's Dream & Debris Cloud

The Lord bless and keep you precious family. And I want to take a moment to thank you for your kind support of our channel and the Refuge. We are learning so many things each day, from one another, and are blessed with the most loving and supportive people imaginable. Many are moving forward with their ministries, and the young man who left everything to be here the very day his university courses began, is now making vows in the community and is beginning his own ministry. A beautiful, beautiful blossoming. We are thrilled with what the Lord is doing here and you are all such a part of this. Thank you.

I want to share a dream Ezekiel had with you. First, I would like to say that the warning of fireballs from heaven, was just the very beginning of the event as we enter a debris cloud that our solar system is passing through. Astronomers are still trying to calculate the affects this cloud will have on Earth, by observing the very early stages. It has been said that the heavier manifestation will be in 30 to 60 days from now. So that would be I think June and July. Gaging from the few fireballs that have landed so far, it is a bit more hopeful, than was first projected. But what is coming beyond that initial time is quite immense and we still don't know what kind of effect it will have.

But Ezekiel had a Holy Spirit dream about this very thing. He found himself down the mountain and in Taos looking for souls to minister to.-- -- They were lined up outside a clinic at the south end of town, and there were people everywhere, out on the street.-- Mostly seemed very disoriented and confused, wandering like there was no place for them to go. It seemed that there was an unusual amount of street people walking around, waiting in line, for the clinic and some of us from the refuge were passing out food and taking supplies to different parts of town to help.

Ezekiel visited the fire station and asked if he could be of any help, and they readily accepted him, handing him a fire man's jacket and boots, which he felt totally uncomfortable in.-- -- They got in the firetruck headed for the north end of Taos and Ezekiel was riding with them. He was struck by the condition of the roads which were almost impassible, and the groups of wandering souls not understanding what was going on.--It was obvious from the scene before him that these fireballs had come in a great shower and torn up the roads, burned down houses and caused a general state of havoc. Taos was not the same at all.

He knew he had to get off the firetruck and down with the people who needed ministry so badly. And so, they stopped and dropped him off.

While people waited in line at the clinic, on two different occasions, a victim that had died of Covid, was being wheeled out to an ambulance. The whole scene was one of despair and confusion.-- Ezekiel spent much time with different people on the street that were just so lost and not understanding what was going on.-- Yet he was able to bring comfort to many of the people who didn't have a clue as to what God was doing or why He was allowing all of this, and that's the end of the dream.

Dear ones, if we are going to have a revival before the Lord removes us in the rapture, comfort zones have got to be destroyed so that people will be hungry for answers to questions like, "Why is God doing this to us?" --The liberal agendas in today's churches have given birth to thousands of souls who no longer know right from wrong. The standard of immorality so commonly accepted, has left them confused as to why God would even punish them. After all, we're good people.-- -- We go to church and pay our tithes. Why is this happening to us? God help us in ministry if we have not called sin, sin, but glossed it over to please the crowds and pay the bills.

Lord, have you something to say?

Beloved Heart dwellers, people of My own heart, what is being allowed is a must to break through to those who continue to say, "Business as usual." even after each one of these signs from Heaven, that something is terribly wrong. Desperately we are trying to get the attention of those who have no conscience, because they have been taught American cultural morals, rather than Christian morals. People have made their culture their religion.

What is happening now all over the earth is the consequence of permissive morality which has left the Earth swimming in filth and sin.--I tell you the truth, if My Father in Heaven did not allow this, the cosmos itself would bring upheaval, so wicked are the ways of immoral people.

Do not ever doubt My Love for you My People. Though you do not understand at times, why certain things must come to pass, never doubt that they are allowed for a much higher purpose. I have told you that revival will happen before the Rapture because I need you to prepare to lay down your everyday agendas to make time to work in the fields bringing in the harvest.

As the familiar everyday events are suspended, more time is made for you to seek out your brother and sister and tell them of My great love. Are you prepared for this? Can you lay down the many things in your lives that have nothing to do with bringing My kingdom to earth, and with saving souls? I want each one of you to search your heart and ask My Holy Spirit to help you recognize the opportunities I do indeed set before you. As things continue to heat up, there will be more and more of them.

Go now and ponder these--requests of Mine, taking them to prayer each time you have the chance to share My Love with a soul. Ask when you go out, "Lord help me to make a difference in someone's life today." This is a request I will surely fulfill.--My blessing is upon you now, to recognize that which will bring an eternal reward from that which is purely carnal and leave you penniless in Heaven.

Act on this knowledge my loved ones, do not be like those who hear the word but don't go out into their Father's field to gather in the harvest. They say "yes" but they don't go, but you be different. You prepare your hearts, make time for souls, study your scriptures, spend time soaking with Me. Let My love saturate you, so that when you go out you will spill out over others, the very love I have filled your heart with.

Under Attack

May 19, 2020

The Lord bless you dear family.

Yesterday we were blessed to have two more of our volunteers take vows and put the habit on. I cannot get over the beauty of these souls God has sent us. Truly they are a wonder and a joy. The brotherly love and caring of these souls truly overwhelm me at times...and they get under serious attack such as being paralyzed by demons in their sleep, or having dreams that are very negative and discouraging. But they always go to the Lord and He comforts and restores them.

The awesome part is that they are willing to suffer for Jesus. As He told us, that if we want to be His disciples, we must deny ourselves, pick up our cross and follow Him. When you think about that statement, it is very daunting. The cross was a horrible way to die, and yet He is asking us to pick it up and carry it. That means we will wear the crown of scorns as well, and be under attack just as He was, but in our own circumstances. He is truly making us into His image by what we suffer for the Gospel.

Precious family, I am asking for your prayers because we are under attack at the refuge. It seems that a certain coven of witches has gathered together and is planning some kind of assault on the community. They really want us off the mountain. But the Lord wants them converted, so He is asking us to pray for them. After I received this news about the attack, He gave me confirmations that He is protecting us, but still we really need your prayers.

We have seen people spying on us from the forest, driving by and filming our buildings. Right now, we are working on the "commons" which will be a place for us to gather, eat, worship, watch holy movies and just plain enjoy one another. The hermitages are very small except for Ezekiel's and mine, so they do not lend themselves to fellowship which this building will. They are strictly for prayer and being alone with the Lord. As far as how many we have here, there are only four besides Father and I and two living in Taos.

And this is how the Lord intended us to be, a very, very small family. We have an outreach every other week where we go out and pray with people in the valley and bring some food. It is beautiful to see each of us pressing into prayer and the work God has given us. And I want to thank you, for you have made it all possible by your generous donations.

So after the news of the upcoming attack, I sought the Lord and this is what He said to me through the Rhema's that came up, including during the Lord's Supper, the readings.

Give me justice, O God, and defend my cause against the wicked;
rescue me from deceitful and unjust men. You O God are my refuge.

*He who made a way through the sea,
a path through the mighty waters, 17 who drew out the chariots and horses,
the army and reinforcements together,
and they lay there, never again to rise, extinguished, snuffed out like a wick: (that was the Egyptian army that was facing the Israelites before they crossed the Red Sea)*

*The Psalm goes on, 18 Forget the former things;
do not dwell on the past.
19 See, I am doing a new thing!
Now it springs up; do you not perceive it?
I am making a way in the wilderness Amen*

*and streams in the wasteland.
20 The wild animals honor me,
the jackals and the owls,
because I provide water in the wilderness
and streams in the wasteland,
to give drink to my people, my chosen, 21 the people I formed for myself that they may proclaim my praise.*

Isaiah 43

And another word that came up: God is not unjust; he will not forget your work and the love you have shown him as you have helped his people and continue to help them.

And this Psalm was a Rhema from the website.

*1 Be merciful to me, my God, for my enemies are in hot pursuit; all day long they press their attack. 2 My adversaries pursue me all day long; in their pride many are attacking me.
3 When I am afraid, I put my trust in you. In God, whose word I praise in God I trust and am not afraid. What can mere mortals do to me?
5 All day long they twist my words; all their schemes are for my ruin. 6 They conspire, they lurk, they watch my steps, hoping to take my life. 7 Because of their wickedness do not let them escape; in your anger, O God, bring the nations down.
8 Record my misery; and list my tears on your scroll are they not in your record? 9 Then my enemies will turn back when I call for help. By this I will know that God is for me.
10 In God, whose word I praise, in the Lord, whose word I praise 11 in God I trust and am not afraid. What can man do to me?
12 I am under vows to you, my God; I will present my thank offerings to you. 13 For you have delivered me from death and my feet from stumbling, that I may walk before God in the light of life. And that was a really beautiful Psalm 56.*

And about 20 years ago, the Lord had given me a word about the community that was to be here someday and I made a Rhema card taken from the example of the Blessed Mother and this popped up also.

And she firmly believed all the angel foretold. So that was a beautiful Rhema just to stay in faith and what God has promised He will do.

Yesterday when we were all praying, I saw you Jesus, spread a huge covering over the property where we have built, and then I opened the Bible Promise book to God's Protection, The Name of the Lord is a strong tower. The man who does what is right runs into it and is safe.

In so many words You O Lord have promised me protection. Have You anything to say? Please open my ears to hear You Sweet Savior.

Jesus began, no harm will come to this place, for I have given My angels charge over it. As long as your intentions remain pure Clare, you have nothing to fear. I have sent you the best to untie this evil knot and the ways you have been cheated. Rest in that. I am with this soul and they will do exactly what I need done.

But you My Love, must pray for your enemies, because they are not few and wish for them to be saved and not go into perdition. Some in fact will convert, others have sealed their commitment to the dark side and will have nothing to do with the light.

They are mere men, what can they do when God is on your side? Besides this refuge does not belong to you but to Me, and they are not fighting a mere mortal. And what was stolen from you shall be returned, for injustice has cried out to Heaven.

Many are those who are on your side. Pray for them, they are ancestors and relatives of those who persecute you. They pray for the conversion of their dear ones, even as the rich man in the life of Lazarus prayed to Me for his brothers.

Now here's a very interesting point that I never got before. In Luke 16 starting at the 19th verse is the story of Lazarus and the Rich Man.

19 There was a rich man who was clothed in purple and fine linen and who feasted sumptuously every day. 20 And at his gate was laid a poor man named Lazarus, covered with sores, 21 who desired to be fed with what fell from the rich man's table. Moreover, even the dogs came and licked his sores. 22 The poor man died and was carried by the angels to Abraham's side. The rich man also died and was buried, 23 and in Hades, being tormented, he lifted up his eyes and saw Abraham far off and Lazarus at his side. 24 And he called out, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus to dip the end of his finger in water and cool my tongue, for I am in anguish in this flame. 25 But Abraham said, Child, remember that you in your lifetime received your good things, and Lazarus in like manner bad things; but now he is comforted here, and you are in anguish. 26 And besides all this, between us and you a great chasm has been fixed, in order that those who would pass from here to you may not be able, and none may cross from there to here. 27 And then the rich man said, I beg you, father, to send him to my father's house 28 for I have five brothers so that he may warn them, lest they also come into this place of torment. 29 But Abraham said, they have Moses and the Prophets; let them hear them. 30 And he said, No, Father Abraham, but if someone goes to them from the dead, they will repent. 31 Abraham answered him back, if they do not hear Moses and the Prophets, neither will they be convinced if someone should rise from the dead.

The Lord began, you see, though he was in torment, his voice was heard, and his voice was a supplication to Me. Any time you cry out, whether on earth, in Heaven or Purgatory, it is received as a prayer, even though the answer may be "No." None the less, the rich man cried out in supplication to Abraham and was heard. That is what prayer is all about, crying out to God on behalf of others.

Well Lord are you saying that there are intercessors in Hell?

Jesus continued, "In Hell they cry out to Me and I hear them. There is nowhere on earth or below the earth that I do not hear. That is prayer, whether it is for oneself or another, it is still prayer, asking grace from Me."

But do You grant the requests of those in Hell?

No Clare, they have forfeited all their rights to prayer because of their decision to belong to Satan. I hear them but I do not answer the requests. Let them pray to Satan who will only ridicule and torment them without mercy, for being so foolish as to think he is capable of anything but evil and torment. This is the saddest state of affairs. Satan taught them to lie, steal, cheat, murder and destroy. Then when they die, they expect to receive something good from him? He lied to them, they lied to others but hold out hope that he will keep his promises? He laughs them to scorn for buying his lies and torments them day and night with their stupidity in thinking otherwise of him.

He is a fallen angel, his entire motive is to hurt Me by hurting mankind, that is why he puts up a kindly front, he dupes the ignorant into complicity with him, making Me out to be the unjust brother equal to him, when in fact he is a mere creature, foul as he is, and I am the Creator that gave him life and free will. He appeals to carnal man and the flesh by indulging in unspeakable acts which the demons goad a man onto committing fueling them with passion. Deep down in the hearts of these souls, there is a voice crying out, don't do that, don't do it. But they are given over to their lusts and reasoned with in such a way that their consciences are totally dead and My voice is not heard. And this is the sort of men you are dealing with, they have long since abandoned what was good and right, and fully embraced what is evil.

Yet, there is hope for some if you pray. But prayer will keep you from anger and bitterness for all the evil they attempt to do to you. And that was the end of His message. What I thought was really noteworthy is that's an example of someone praying who has left the earth. The rich man, the rich man is crying out and asking for mercy that's a prayer and it's coming from the other side. Now the Lord didn't grant that request but still it tells us something, that people who have crossed over to the other side can pray for us, it's right there in the scriptures and it's very, very clear. But of course, because they have sold themselves to the devil the Lord will not hear their prayer in the sense of granting their request, but He does hear what they say and it is a form of prayer. So, people who think that the great cloud of witnesses is not able to intercede for us are mistaken. Through the Holy Spirit they're aware of everything that goes on to the degree that the Lord allows and when they see their relatives in danger, they pray for them because they want them to be in Heaven. So, make good use of your intercessors in Heaven dear ones, they are on your side and pray for us, we really appreciate it. God bless you.

Prayer and Release from Oppression

My dear heart dwelling family, recently Lana Vawser put out a message about an assignment against women in ministry, that their swords were being stolen by a large demon and as a result they were unusually tired, feeling weak and defeated. Chains were also upon them as well, so they could not minister and they didn't have the oomph to get up and run the race. Those are my words; I'm just paraphrasing what I got out of Lana's message. Given the antidote for getting our swords back, "Shake it off." She said this very vigorously, "SHAKE IT OFF!!!," I would say, do it anyway. Do it afraid, do it tired, do it hungry, but do it!!!

Have you ever felt like you just wanted to go back to bed, or find a hole and crawl into it? Have you ever felt like you were letting the Lord down because you just couldn't raise the enthusiasm to keep going? I believe all these negative thoughts are a part of this attack against us. I call it a form of depression...when you know what you have to do, but you just plain don't have the will or desire to get up and do it. I have been shaking that off of my life and pressing in for a good 50 years, at least, because I have been very prone to depression when I was younger, but doing it feeling bland and uninspired, doing it just out of obedience with no other impetus behind me. This same type of assignment against us has been done over and over again in different forms, throughout the years to the point where I have had to force myself to keep going...I would get excited and get into a project and all of a sudden I would lose my momentum and desire. I would flounder. Sometimes I have to use resort to more caffeine to break the lethargy. Also,

B12 drops and other vitamins to stimulate the body. Thankfully, that doesn't last for long, when I am up and running and recover my sense of mission and purpose I can go back to normal vitamins without stimulants.

The other thing I use is another book called Jesus CEO by Laurie Beth Jones. It's very inspiring and very provoking to get up and keep moving, as well as authors like John Maxwell, who is also practical and inspiring. And there are some Christians, famous Christian teachers, who specialize in getting people motivated. I know that they come under criticism because people look at them sometimes as prosperity Christians, but let's face it, the Lord has to use different messages and different vessels for different problems in our lives and no preacher is perfect, no teacher is perfect, there is always error somewhere, but let's not focus on the error, let's focus on the gift that they have. Speaking of that, when Ezekiel and I were down in our worst dumps, Joel Osteen, he comes under fire for being a prosperity Christian, but I want to tell you he saved our lives when we were in the deepest pit by just encouraging us to stay out of self-pity and keep climbing.

Also, I have to pray the binding prayer with more passion and even add particular dynamics to it, such as coming against a spirit of Sloth, Indifference, Faithlessness. Oh, my dear family, there are so many ways the devils injure and steal from us. But the Lord has told us we are in a war, not with flesh and blood but with spirits and principalities who plot wicked agendas to discourage, divide and disarm us.

So, I wanted to talk to you about prayer. The binding prayer is wonderful, but it is good to use it as a springboard into praying in tongues and even singing in tongues. In this way Holy Spirit is praying through you, but the enemy cannot understand what He is saying. Tongues are very powerful and even Paul said, that he prayed in tongues more than you all. So, I recommend that you give voice to tongues whenever the inspiration hits you. If you have trouble receiving this gift, be sure to pray to the Holy Spirit to lose your tongue so that He may use it and then don't be afraid, don't be cowed. I think singing is a really good springboard into tongues because the melody kind of helps you along.

There are curses put upon Christians to make them ashamed of tongues, or even to bind the tongue so it cannot be loosed for the Holy Spirit to use. So, you need to address both dynamics when you do your spiritual warfare prayers. Saying simply, Holy Spirit, lose my tongue and use it to praise God, to pray for a change of heart and pray against the enemy. Then renounce all shame and lying teachings about this gift, and let it flow from within you. Sometimes I sing in tongues better than I pray in tongues. So, I recommend you all acquire and use this awesome gift. The Lord will even sometimes give you the interpretation of what you are giving voice to.

So, my conviction dear ones is that you need to pray in tongues as constantly as you possibly can. I do so sporadically, all day, even with people around me. Now the enemy will hear this message and send out assignments to bridle our tongues, but we have authority over him so use it!

I also want to mention to you that early morning is the very best time to pray because your mind is fresh and disengaged from the day's practical demands. If you cannot pray in the morning, evening after a nap is also a good time, or during the wee small hours of the morning. Written prayers are beautiful and sometimes very heartfelt and inspiring. If they become rote and flat, we need to put them aside for a season. You can also add tongues to written prayers when you feel a nudge to do so. The Lord taught us a written prayer, the Our Father, so don't let anyone discourage you from praying in this way.

Praying the word of God and standing on it is so very powerful. The Psalms are loaded with inspiring words that are relevant even today. Tradition calls the Psalms the prayers of Jesus. I recommend you isolate the Psalms with your fingers in your Bible and then take a Rhema from those pages, or you can go on OurLadyLightoftheWoods.org, website and click on the twelve stars over the Blessed Virgin's head in the illustration. And in that pool are all the Psalms. Also, you can click on her heart, a popup will come up and that pool is taken from some of the Scriptures because it says that Mary hid all these things in her heart. This is how we stand against the enemy, standing on the promises of God taken from Scripture. They are so powerful when used as a prayer or petition and repeated and absorbed deeply.

There are other prayers that can be very contemplative and powerful, such as the Jesus Prayer, Lord Jesus, Son of God, Savior, Have Mercy on Me a sinner and you pray that over and over again. That is used a lot in Eastern Orthodox monasteries and also the Rosary which is made up of Scriptures and meditations and the words of the angel, words from scripture.

The meditations are on the life of Jesus. Another powerful devotion the Mother of Jesus began in 33 AD, was the Stations of the Cross, where she went and meditated on what He suffered at each station, and wiped up His Holy Redeeming Blood from the pavement. The first century Christians followed this holy devotion along the same stones leading to Calvary, and even to this day carry on this holy tradition.

And I want to add here a word about tradition, it has been said that men's traditions are bad, quoting from the Scriptures about the traditions of men that oppose holiness. And I agree, those that oppose holiness are not good. But every church on this earth has tradition, be it holy or cultural, there is always a sequence of events that happen in a service that followed faithfully, week after week or year after year, and that becomes that church's or that denomination's tradition.

There are many holy traditions that uphold the Gospel and bring people closer to God. Those are good traditions. Then there are bad traditions that contradict holiness, the Scriptures and do injury to the heart of the Gospel. Each culture has their traditions and as long as they reinforce holiness and loving God, they are good. So, the tradition of the Stations of the Cross is so very, very holy and leads to a deeper relationship with Jesus as we share in His suffering.

The last kind of prayer I want to mention is my favorite, the cry of the heart. This prayer happens when you are immersed in prayer and suddenly it becomes a deep and passionate cry of the heart and it just flows heart to Heart with God. This can even lead to a union of our Heart with His. In these prayers, words are hardly necessary, rather it is the silent cry that is heard loud and clear by the Lord, He knows exactly what we are saying, and with it sometimes comes the sense that you know you've been heard and all that is left for you is peace and to stand in faith that it shall be done unto you according to your faith. I have found the prayer of the heart to be the most effective of all prayers. When we are in this place, we are totally naked and vulnerable before God, coming to Him in upmost sincerity, with spirit, soul and body unified in petition. It feels as though all our being is invested in these prayers.

There is also contemplative prayer, when we contemplate Scripture, or the face of Jesus, or an event in His life, or the petals of a flower, and just get lost in the reality of His greatness as it manifests through other things. Looking up and seeing the Milky Way in the sky and billions of stars can also evoke this feeling. It is a celebration of the wonder of His being and His creation which He had made specifically to bring us pleasure.

Oh dear ones, there are so many, many ways to pray, and all of them have their season in our lives...and we cannot say that one way is better than another because it all depends on the circumstances. But sincerity in prayer, whichever form it takes, is always most pleasing to Jesus...I can never exhaust this topic, please Lord, would You teach us?

Jesus began, "There are countless ways My Love, to approach and come close to Me. Each of you are like a very unique one of a kind diamond that prays in your own way, which I relish. Mostly, I want you to come to Me transparent, hiding nothing, and coming in confidence that I love you and will do for you what is in the end for your very best interests. Perhaps the best way to approach this is to tell you what I do not want you to do when you come to Me. Please do not come with a 'happy face' when you are deeply wounded. You cannot hide anything from Me and basically, I know more about what's really going on inside of you than you do. Do not come to Me with a laundry list of another soul's faults. Do not put others down at all. I expect from you, compassion for things you view as short comings of others. You have no idea what the other souls are suffering through and it is an ugly thing to hear a soul berate and detract from another child of God. I hide 80% of your faults from you because you are still too weak to address them. In truth, you see so very little of your own faults, that it is shameful for you to even notice the short comings of others. Rather you can come to Me asking for help to understand your circumstances and others you find difficult to deal with. I will always anoint you with wisdom and patience when you do that. What I love to see in prayer, is long suffering and kindness with others. This disposes My Heart to grant your requests.

Humility, humility, humility. My child, come to Me steeped in thanksgiving. This is a huge shortcoming in your culture. You tend to be whiney and negative when I want to see you grateful and hopeful. I want to hear how you appreciate the little and the big things My Father gives you. I want you to keep your sufferings in perspective giving thanks that I am teaching you long suffering. I do so want to see you recognize above all, how very fortunate and blessed you are for the things you take for granted...a roof over your head, a spouse, work that edifies, food and clothing, My presence and faithfulness in your life and so much, much more.

These are merely basics I wish for you to steep yourself in day by day. I gave you the perfect format for prayer when I taught you the Our Father. When you say, Our Father who is in Heaven, hallowed be Your Name, you are claiming that you belong to the family of God, that you acknowledge Him as the source of all that concerns you and as your creator and sole provider. Hallowed be thy Name, in other words you are showing great respect and honor to your creator by elevating His name. His name is holy and never to be used lightly. Thy kingdom come, is your acknowledgement and a prayer that His kingdom be established on this earth, and His will be carried out by you. Not the will of earthly agendas but bringing the kingdom of Heaven to earth with brotherly love, forgiveness and righteousness. Give us this day our daily bread is petitioning Him for the necessities of life, in confidence of His goodness. Forgive us our debts as we forgive others, acknowledges that you do not lead a perfect life, you are prone to sin and error and at the same time, in the same measure you will forgive others as you too have been forgiven by me. Lead us not into temptation but protect and deliver us from evil, expresses your desire to stay holy and not consort with evil. These are the most basic elements to prayer, and using them will always bring favor upon your life.

My children, be kindly and gentle with one another. Do not force your impatience on others, do not lord it over them, rather serve, support and build up one another. Then when you come to Me in prayer, My heart will be wide open to receive your requests because you have done for others, what I would have you to do.

I impart to you now, My Blessing, that your prayers would be ordered by My Spirit, that you would cease to find fault with others, that you would lift them up to Me, forgive and pray for them. The blessing of almighty God, the Father, Son and Holy Spirit descend upon you and be with you forever Amen.

Underground War In Progress

My precious family, the Rapture is so very heavy on my heart. You see, Jesus has given me just a very little glimpse into the corruption on and within this earth, and it is staggering.

One of our people with military connections shared with us the devastating news of how children are being farmed all over the world in underground cities and being used for experimenting and extracting adrenochrome, which is harvested from the pupil of the eye while the children are tortured.--All I can tell you is that it is horrendous and beyond believing.

It is so common on our soil that there is hardly a place on earth that is exempt from this travesty.--Children are kidnapped and sent to different facilities where they are used for experiments or tortured or to produce adrenochrome for the elite or fed to the demon alien population beneath the earth that is consorting with the government giving us alien demon technology that is way beyond the level of our civilization to handle in a moral manner.

This brings me to the Rapture. There is just no way for me to hide or explain away how very serious our condition is right now in the world. President Trump has raised up an army of men and women to fight these underground wars in tunnels and underground cities in America.-- -- The fight is ferocious and I am asking all of you to offer your sufferings and prayers for the advantage of our military over this demon alien population and those in league with them.-- --

There is a chance--that this underworld government can be destroyed in this war, but the operations are around the world and so very widespread and entrenched in different governments, it will require the cooperation of many nations to eradicate them.

Recently area 51 had an earthquake 6.5 with several aftershocks. This quake was caused by non-radioactive nuke planted in key places to destroy the aliens living underground.-- --

Our army goes in and releases the children and then destroys the facility with the aliens in it.-- --

This is NOT Science Fiction dear ones, this is reality. The alien ships are everywhere in the skies and disguised many times by clouds, and I believe that after the Rapture they will be seen and revealed all over the earth in a tremendous display of power.-- -- And I think maybe that is how they will explain away the Rapture, that the inferior human beings on Earth were removed because they stood in the way of progress in our civilization. I think that's what they will do. But for now, God is fighting on our side to remove this disgusting demon alien population from our earth.

I'm asking you please pray for our service men and always pray for the President's safety.-- -- Your prayers are powerful, nothing goes without grace being released.-- -- It may seem overwhelming or hopeless, but that's far from the truth. Our prayers are winning this war. Keep praying Heartdwellers, keep praying.

St. Francis on Holiness

May the sweet presence of Jesus and St. Francis be with you. Today, I awoke to find a tiny puddle of water on a picture of Jesus that was lying flat near the altar. Yesterday, I had taken things out of storage and was organizing them, things that needed to be set aside for later. I have a lot of things that are not necessary to this life. I started to reflect on that and also what my husband had hinted at last night before I went to bed....that I was too busy with things.-- --

Well I resented that remark because I did pray my usual hours before I began organizing...and some of the things were his after all, or medical items that needed to be consolidated. You know how it is when you're moving...everything gets mixed up. Well I was un-mixing and I thought surely, he would be grateful for that and happy because it needed to be done. So, I got a little puffed up about it.-- --

But then when I woke up this morning to that little puddle of water on the picture of Jesus that looked like tears on the Lord's portrait, I began to question if Ezekiel was right. So, I went to the bible promises and I opened to Jealousy. Uh oh that's not very good, jealousy always means that I'm getting into the world, disordered affections. Oh yuck, that is one of the worst readings for me next to Pride. I was immediately convicted and resolved not to let these things rule me, but get rid of more stuff. I also apologized to Ezekiel and asked for an absolution.

I fell into my usual deep pit when I don't live up to my calling. It's a nasty sink hole that pulls me easily into self-pity and despair. Then I heard the voice of St. Francis and I felt urged to pull two holy cards. The first was, "We are brothers in the same order." And here I was berating myself for calling myself a Franciscan. And then, "You are beautiful My Beloved, you are beautiful," which is what comes from the Song of Songs and what the Lord says to His Bride.

I had been crying for my failures and these two sweet cards brought me out of a dark and hopeless place. Then I began a dialogue with St. Francis whom I knew was present,

"Holy Father, I can never live up to the way you lived. I had just read on probably six episodes from the Omnibus of Sources and of course they all were super, super holy. So, it was all fresh in my mind as I compared it to my life. So, I said, "Holy Father, I can never live up to the way you lived, I have already by my love of beauty done some things that are not anywhere near in keeping with your example and I feel very, very badly. How can I correct this?"

I heard him say, "Just keep doing what you are doing."

And I thought WHAT??? Isn't that what just got me into trouble?

He clarified it and said, "Arrange simple cells, places for the brothers and sisters to pray in, deny yourself superfluities, and spend more time in prayer. Beloved daughter, does it surprise you that you cannot live up to my example? Truly it is pride and lack of focus on Jesus that makes you want to be someone you are not.

My storm tossed one, you are exceedingly frail. You have been through many, many battles, now is no time to give up. Minor reforms and vigilance over avarice are what is needed. Besides, times are coming which will require even more vigilance."

And that's interesting because what I opened to this morning in the Omnibus is about how the brothers went out on the mission, in other words, they went to beg for morsels of food to feed themselves and begging is one of the Franciscan charisms that we haven't lived as a community yet. Ezekiel and I have been living it for 30 years but no one else here has so I thought hmm this could be interesting where are we going with this.

Holy Father, I feel so badly.

He lifted my chin, "Don't give up."

What do I do?

"Little choices in a better direction. You have people here who are happy to live with very little, they are precious gems inspired by the Spirit of God.

Let me explain something to you my little Clare. You are yet a child at heart, this is YOUR charism. The adult model of the order does not fit you. You were chosen for this job expressly because you are so frail and inadequate, so moved by various desires, falling many times...but always through His grace persevering.-- --

Now Satan would like to make sport of you and cause you to believe you are unfit for this job. But did I not say the order would be reborn by simple youth that have no other example but the gospels and my unworthy example?

What I am trying to tell you my daughter, is that your inadequacies, are precisely what is needed in this time and season. Many will be inspired and surpass you in holiness and the rigors of penance, but yours is to love the little ways because you are incapable of anything else. Do not let your heart be broken by these words, rather you should rejoice because "We" are making very great progress in spreading the gospel by your failures and His forgiveness.

You are truly a child at heart, that is why that little wall in your house is precious to us, with memorabilia from your life...holy rocks with messages on them, and wood and other signs sent to you to encourage you to keep going in times when you did want to give up. You and Ezekiel are very little indeed and you must not lament how God made you, but accept it graciously knowing that He will always bring forth beauty from your ashes.

Now you see, there are many who cannot resist chocolate. You are not all alone in this. Partly because your body craves it and partly because you are so little. This is not license for you to indulge, because surely the devils will mock you when you try to deliver them, they will say to you, "you have no power over us without the fast." And in some rare cases that is true. But for the most part, you are not subject to them, they are subject to you and you have every right to throttle and deliver them when you speak in--His name. It is not on your power that these disgusting creatures are bound, it is in His power, and you are His spouse so you have every right to use His name and expect results.

However, when there is a big job, spiritually that needs to be done, it is good for you to abstain, yes, but also do not rely on that, rely on who He is and the power of His name to do this job even while abstaining.

"Not by might nor by power but by My Spirit says the Lord."

"I want to get back to the essence of my message to you, this is an important point and I want you to fix this conversation in your heart. You are but a child, stay innocent and pure, shun the ways of man and do everything from a motive of pure love, of God and of your brother, not for any benefit that would come to you.

I want the world to know that they can still be pleasing to God when beset by weaknesses, if they act from the purest motive of love for God and brother. I want you to stop lamenting your child-likeness, and rejoice in the simplicity of who you are.-- --

You were raised to be an adult, to fit into an adult society, to impress others as an adult, and you passed a major life test when you abandoned that and embraced the child within. You have no idea how highly Jesus regards this state of childhood. It is to Him a supreme goodness, that shines in sanctity. So, don't try to grow up and do incredible feats of fasting, unless the Lord gives you the mandate and the grace, for a specific season.

Rather deny yourself as you can, but work very hard at purifying your motives and loving your brother. The very act of loving your brother draws out sacrifice from you. This is pure motivation...not the mistaken motivation to be accomplished at spiritual feats. That focus is vain and not pleasing to God.

When all is said and done, this is what I want you to remember, you are a child at heart and you will never live up to the great penances done by others, nor should you aspire to do so. I accept you into my order, just as you are Clare and to be truthful you are safer now than you were when you did fast six days out of the week.

You have had to come to terms with your great weaknesses and these have lowered you to yourself, which has contributed to the grace of humility. Should you be very accomplished at fasting and other penances, you would be vain and haughty."

Yep I can see that.

But what about the time when I did penance and a boy was healed of cancer?

"No greater love is there than to lay down your life for your brother."

So, shouldn't I aspire to such things?

"Is this what you want?"

I should want it, but I avoid such penances.-- Shouldn't I aspire and work towards this?

"It is within your will to do so. Little acts like that are greatly blessed by God if done with no other motive than to help another. It is not outside the realm of possibilities for you. Is this what you want?"

I would love to see a miracle happen as a result of something He gave me the grace to do. Yet I shudder at the thought of giving up my comforts. St. Francis I'm a mess.

"You have to come to terms with who you are and who you are not. The Lord knows what you are capable of..."

And I suspect it is much more than what I am doing.

"That is always the case, with every soul. What makes the difference is knowing who you are called to be and committing to that, with its pros and cons.-- --

My message to you is simple Clare, and you are making it much more complicated than what it is.-- In short, do not be ashamed of your littleness, your weaknesses, and short comings, because He is using them to reveal His loving and forgiving nature to a generation of souls that are completely jaded on religion and God. He is supremely loving and forgiving and your transparency about how you recognize yourself is a great comfort to the rest of humanity that is just like you.-- --

Of course, there are rare souls who excel at everything...but, what is their motive? Is it pure or is it worldly? Is it a result of their upbringing and pressures brought to bear on them in formative years? The Lord honors purity and this is what I wish for you to maintain and even grow in. In the meantime, your mess will give hope to others who have lived in their mess for decades and feel SO unworthy of God. This is a great lie from Satan, you are shattering this lie by your candid appraisal of self. When souls see what a failure you are, and see Jesus lifting you up again and anointing you, they see great hope...enough hope to get up and try again, knowing that their Savior is a loving God and He will come to their aid, they keep going.

Satan would have them throw in the towel and go back to sin and the world, but you have given them something to live for, God loves them just the way they are and if He can use you, He can use them, and that restores value and a desire to live, in their hearts. Satan worked so hard to make them give up, but your faults gave them hope to stay in the game.

This is why you are hated; this is why you are slandered and discounted. But what is that to you, you never wanted to be part of the 'beautiful people.' You tried that once and saw the absolute vanity of it. You have chosen the better part, to be little, hidden, and known only to God. Approved only by God.

This is what I want to tell the world, "Come as you are." If you have been touched by the gospel message and want to live a circumcised life, as Clare and the other souls have chosen, I receive you as you are, little and poor. Through your desire, Jesus will give the grace for each of you to attain the measure of holiness you are made to fulfill.-- --

If you have been rejected by the establishment, all the better.-- If you truly know and acknowledge your limitations, but have a pure heart, you qualify. He will use you and I will welcome you.

Go now my little, little Clare, be at peace in who you are not, and if per chance the Lord should ask an extraordinary sacrifice from you for the good of your brother, do not calculate in your own terms, if you can do it, rather trust in His grace to do it. But do not go forth seeking to impress and satisfy yourself and the world with penances, rather be stripped of all self-interest and receive yourself just as you are.

When God calls you for something out of your ordinary ability, trust that He will do it through you with the grace He will give you." And that was the end of St. Francis' message to us.

Arise America

May the Lord stir our hearts into action. Beloved family the Lord has quickened to me, that this drastic change in our society that has taken place because of the virus, has been deliberately been allowed by Him for many, many reasons. The chief one being a wakeup call to the world that we are living in the end times and are not prepared for what is coming.

He is trying to wake up His sleeping beauty, before the enemy completely takes her by surprise.--

One reason dear ones is that our focus on materialism and accomplishment, has driven us to the point where we are not vigilant about subtle political changes that pass right by us, such as the things Obama instituted under the umbrella of Obamacare. Many things have been signed into law behind our backs, things that are being set up so that when the right moment arrives innocent people can be arrested for no concrete reason at all.

Because we have focused on money and success, our families and marriages are falling apart while evil agendas in the schools are influencing our children and turning them into a generation without morals. They have been taught that bad is good and good is bad. As a result, they have turned against parents who have tried to instill morals in them to save their souls. Lord, I know this message was your idea, could you please speak to us about it?

Jesus began, "Gladly. It has been on My heart My people, that you don't realize that I have allowed these circumstances to wake you up and turn you around before it's entirely too late.-- -- Many Christians who pray passionately have jumped in the fray and kept evil from overturning this nation, but just by the skin of its teeth.

Many of you complain against Me, "Lord why did you allow this to happen?" The reason this is happening is because you were running headlong over a cliff and I have done this to stop you and get your attention, to restore proper values in the home, to gather the families together rather than day after day each one going about their own pursuits, oblivious as to what is going on in each other's lives.

Curtailing the physical busy-busy lifestyle has brought you face to face with the reality of your family's relationships both in their weakest and strongest points. Many families have been disintegrating under their very own nose, and outside activities have kept them ignorant of what is really happening.

I want you to draw together My people and examine your lives for the past few years. What are your values? How do you determine that? By looking at what you spend most of your time on, most of your money on. Investing time in fruitless and evil video games has brought much demonic company into your homes. Do you understand, your bodies are electrical machines that run on electrical impulses? Demons also run on this energy source and it is so easy for them to interface with your brain and cause serious genetic damage to your genes, cutting you off from Me by desensitizing the higher electrical currents in your bodies.-- --

You become used to loud, fast paced music, which pulls you further away from My still small voice, you become desensitized to violence by watching crimes committed and in video games participating in such things. You are being steered by the monster Satan, who has found ways to make evil beautiful and desirable, feeding on your need to compete and accomplish. Also giving you a sense of accomplishment by playing in this multidimensional world of video games.-- --

The games themselves are a training ground for sin by desensitizing you from peace, gentleness, kindness, deeper thinking, brotherly love...all these games do is foster ambition to excel in violence and speed, doing things that you have no idea how tied in they are to evil. When you blow up a building, you are not inside to see little children ripped apart by the bombs, and this never enters your mind. But these feats of war are preparation for you to be able to pull the trigger on a bomb and not care who or what it hurts. Speed and agility are applauded, without any thought of the consequences to human life.-- War becomes glamorous. But I tell you the truth, war is Hell on Earth. And Satan's agenda is to completely destroy the human race. So, he is behind these games that are training your reflexes and lust for action and destruction. The enemy has fed you on this to prepare you to go out killing, stealing and destroying in times of national distress, which is his whole intention, to inflict suffering and loss on mankind.

Now you are face to face with family members. You struggle against the limitations this virus has put upon your lives. But it is exactly this limitation that I am using to get you to wake up to what is really going on in your lives and where you are really headed. This is no time to complain, rather this is the time to look at the emptiness in your lives, the lack of peace, joy, and the addictions that take you away from one another such as the news, video games, drugs and alcohol, as well as the huge void now in your lives from the rush here and rush there agenda that drives you every single day.

You want to be free of these restrictions that Covid has put on you, but you have not yet understood all the implications of your busy lifestyle. And the worst of these is that your nation has been taken over by wicked men and there is a life and death struggle going on to steal life from you. I need you to wake up and pray, wake up and see what's been happening behind the scenes in your lives. I need you to see the stealthy moves these corrupt politicians have made while you were conquering your next level of the game.

Yes, they have deliberately hooked you into addiction to keep you out of reality and what your life and country is becoming. They have set you up to go here, go there, do this, do that, to the point that you are totally unaware that you are caught in a net of destruction because day by day your rights and morals are being taken from you under the guise of freedom and fun. My people, wake up!!!

It's not about prosperity, more things, more freedoms, more fun, more entertainment. What is happening to you is that you are being chained down, confined, controlled and programmed to go along with Satan's agenda. All of this is being accomplished through deceitful entertainment that applauds what is evil and denounces what is good. In this moment you may enjoy the game, but you will wake up to find out you've been lured into bondage and the only way out is through your God whom you've been taught to despise.

Children, children, children...10-year-old children, 20-year-old children, 30-year-old, children 40 and 50-year-old children...life is being stolen from you, right under your nose. The beauties of your family, the sweetness of a relationship with Me, the freedom your nation was founded on, your health and right to live, all these things are slowly being taken from you.-- -- --

I want you to understand, the evil ones have drugged you into subservience...as long as you can have your video games, pornography, and entertainment, they can keep your focus off of what they are doing behind your backs. And what they are doing is to destroy you from off the planet and take your rights to freedom. They want to plant a device in you that will program your thinking, your moods, your actions, your desires and keep you oblivious to their motives.-- -- Oblivious to why they program these video games the way they do, oblivious to why they present sexuality as recreational, oblivious to what is right and what is wrong, so that you will degenerate into an animal, a beast and not a human being formed in My image.

I am telling you these things because you are complaining about the very restrictions, I have allowed in your lives to turn you from the loss of your soul and an eternity in Hell. I want you to wake up America and the world and see that it is not about your productive prosperous life style, it is about human relationships, your children, your family, your nation, your relationship with me and the destruction of everything good on this Earth that I have entrusted to you.

I want you to rethink these times and see that you are standing at a critical crossroads where evil is lurking to get the upper hand and destroy two thirds of the earth's population. Yes, that means you and those you hold dear. I want you to go deeper My People, much deeper and embrace eternity, where you are headed if you do not change your course. I want you to learn the truth and not swallow lies that will make you feel good on the way to your next baseball game, or amusement park. Stop hurrying past the issues that mean life or death to you and your family in this nation. Stop ignoring the deeper issues and start examining what is behind the faces that tell you who to like, who to hate and what to think.

You have been lied to on a massive scale. It is time for you to go deeper. Set aside your toys and entertainments and examine who and what these people who have been running this country really are. Where are they from, who do they work for, what is their agenda, and what have they been doing behind closed doors. Go deeper, secure your liberty, break through facades and lies, recognizing who they are and who they are not.-- --

Recognize that your nation is hanging on a thread and if ever there was a time to rise up, it is now, and quickly. As a result of this virus which they meant for your harm, I am showing you what your life has been like and where it is going if you don't act now. You've been slowed down, confined and given an opportunity as never before, to recognize what you are dealing with and where you are surely headed if you don't make radical changes in your lifestyle and this nation.-- Because if you do not get control of this, they will get control of you and make those radical changes against your will and much to your sorrow and destruction.

It's not too late if you rise up now. My people, wake up and recognize what you are dealing with, go deeper and discover the evil among you, and even more important return your affections to Me because I alone have the power to deliver you in this crucial hour. But I must see you reform your lives and pray for the overturn of evil and the victory of what is right and good. Stop basing your opinions on the news media, go deeper and find out who is really who and what they are really up to. Make righteous judgments about your leaders. It is not My job alone to turn this nation around, it is up to you to be informed, to know the truth, and to pray accordingly. Then I can raise My Mighty arm and strike the enemy, overturning the death and destruction he has decreed for you which is looming on the horizon.

My blessing is upon you my people, my children, to arise, arise, arise! Take up the truth and fight for it. I am with you!
